

What is Atlanta Plays It Forward and what does it do?

Atlanta Plays It Forward is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to supporting worthy charitable/community organizations and causes. We provide high quality musical entertainment and event related services at little or no cost (or value-added) to pre-qualified charities and causes.

CAUSES – We provide entertainment and event solutions for worthy causes. If you need to provide entertainment or planning for your charitable event, Atlanta Plays It Forward could be your solution. We provide quality, low cost or no cost entertainment and/or event planning to qualified charities/causes.

CONCERT SERIES – We have created concert series in a number of venues. These beautiful, well-appointed venues are fully managed and promoted by Atlanta Plays It Forward during the day of the concert and each supports a selected charity. Each concert is a unique musical performance, always family friendly, by professional performers. Show genres vary from jazz, rock, musical revue, dance, etc. the venues are usually picnic style, meaning concertgoers may bring their own picnic. Tickets are either for table seating (tables, chairs provided) or lawn seating (bring your own lawn chair). Parking is free.

MUSICIANS – If you are a professional musician of any genre who is interested in playing for high profile, well publicized events, Atlanta Plays It Forward wants you. While some events will not be able to pay full price for your services, benefits include high profile exposure, gig referrals and a large network of other musicians to meet and work with.

For more information about Atlanta Plays It Forward, visit www.AtlantaPlaysItForward.org

Tom LaDow, Executive Director 678.591.2610 | www.AtlantaPlaysItForward.org | TLaDow@AtlantaPlaysItForward.com